IX CGFM

The Central Kentucky Chapter established a study group for members preparing to take the CGFM exams. The chapter purchased six sets of CGFM study guides and made them available to study group participants. The study group began meeting in January 2011 and is scheduled to conclude in June 2011. As of the end of May 2011, the study group contains five active members, two of whom have passed one exam each.

The chapter also supported the CGFM program by providing notice of training relevant to the CGFM examination content. The chapter provided training that met the requirements for continuing professional education for members holding the CGFM designation. Brochures advertising the benefits of obtaining the certification are distributed at each meeting. The CEC offered a $50 exam rebate to the first six members to take the exam. March 2011 was designated CGFM Month by Kentucky Governor Steven L. Beshear (see proclamation in Appendix I, below).

X EARLY CAREERS

The Early Careers Director focused her efforts on helping new members become involved with the Central Kentucky Chapter.

XI MISCELLANEOUS

Due to planned renovation work at the Frankfort Plant Board Clubhouse, in January 2011 the monthly meeting location changed to the fellowship hall of Crestwood Baptist Church of US 460. Regular meeting charges remained at $10 for members, $15 for non-members, and $10 for CPE only. An extra $5 was charged for the March meeting, which was for two hours CPE for ethics training instead of the usual one.

APPENDIX I

Proclamation

by

Steven L. Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, The Central Kentucky Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants (AGA), a professional network of 15,000 members in 99 chapters worldwide, has approximately 108 active members representing state, federal, municipal and private sector accountants, auditors and financial managers in Kentucky; and

WHEREAS, AGA's Central Kentucky members have upheld the group's mission of advancing government accountability; continuing broad educational efforts on the high standards of conduct, honor and character in its Code of Ethics; and making significant advances both in professional ability and service to Kentuckians by mastering increasingly technical and complex requirements; and

WHEREAS, AGA's Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) program demonstrates professional competency by requiring candidates to have appropriate educational and employment history; abide by AGA's Code of Ethics; pass three expert-level exams in Governmental Environment, Governmental Financial Management and Control, and Governmental Accounting, Financial Reporting and Budgeting; and requires each CGFM holder to maintain certification by completing at least eighty hours of continuing professional education in government financial management topics or related technical subjects every two years;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, STEVEN L. BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim March 2011, as

CERTIFIED GOVERNMENT FINANCIAL MANAGER MONTH

in Kentucky.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort this 9th day of February, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Eleven and in the 219th year of the Commonwealth.

STEVEN L. BESHEAR
GOVERNOR

Elaine N. Walker
